Meat and Meat Products—Sale of Unwholesome, Prohibited. (Ord. Oct. 1, 1914.)

Section 3 of chapter 14 of the general ordinances of the city of Schenectady, relative to sale of stale meats, undrawn poultry, game, etc., prohibited, as amended October 1, 1914, shall read as follows:

"SEC. 3. No person shall sell or expose for sale any unwholesome, stale, emaciated, blown, tainted, putrid, or measly meat, fish, clams, oysters, or other provisions, or being a merchant, butcher, or dealer, have in his possession veal known as bob veal, or sell or expose for sale the carcass or flesh of any calf unless such calf shall have been, at the time it was killed, at least 4 weeks old; or sell, or weigh for sale, within the city, any dead domestic fowl, turkey, goose, duck, rabbit, or game, with the entrails or crop, or any part thereof therein; and any person offending against the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be liable to, and punished by, a fine not exceeding $150, or imprisonment not exceeding 150 days, or both such fine and imprisonment."

SCRANTON, PA.

Foodstuffs—Sale of Unwholesome, Prohibited. (Ord. Mar. 10, 1914.)

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation, or any agent thereof, to sell, or offer or expose for sale, or have in possession with intent to sell, in any store or on the streets in the city of Scranton, any fish, fresh or salted, dressed meats, poultry, candies, figs, fruit, dates, shelled peanuts, popcorn, or any other foodstuff, that may become contaminated, tainted, or otherwise rendered unwholesome, by contact with air, water or dust from the street, unless such fish, meats, poultry, candies, fruit, peanuts, and corn, and other foodstuff, be properly inclosed in suitable cases, carts or wagons, to be approved by the bureau of health of the city of Scranton.

SEC. 2. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall, upon conviction before the mayor or a police magistrate of the city of Scranton, be fined not less than $5 and not more than $20, and in default of the payment of such fine it shall be the duty of the said mayor or such magistrate to commit every such person having been convicted as aforesaid to the county jail of Lackawanna County, there to be imprisoned until such fine shall be paid, not exceeding, however, a period of 20 days.

Manure—Care and Disposal. (Ord. Apr. 11, 1914.)

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person or persons, firms, corporations, or associations, to collect, store or keep, or permit to be collected, stored or kept, in any stable, building, or on any yard, lot or premises within the limits of the city of Scranton, manure of any kind, unless the same be inclosed in a tightly covered receptacle or vault, made of concrete, stone, brick, or metal, which receptacle or vault shall at all times be kept properly disinfected, and which receptacle or vault, and the method of disinfecting the same, shall be approved by the superintendent of the bureau of health: Provided, however, That no accumulation of any manure in any such receptacle or vault shall at any time exceed in quantity more than three tons.

SEC. 2. The term manure, for the purpose of this ordinance, shall be construed to mean the dung or offal of horses, mules, cows, sheep, goats, swine, or poultry, and the straw and other refuse, dirt, and waste ordinarily mixed with it.

SEC. 3. Nor shall any such manure be removed, carted, or transported, over or across any street, avenue, court, alleyway, or place, within the city of Scranton, unless the same be inclosed in a tight and covered vehicle, so protected that the
